UCI CHAMBER SINGERS

The UCI Chamber Singers, led by Dr. Irene Messoloras, is a vibrant ensemble known for its outstanding vocal talent and diverse repertoire that spans nearly every musical genre. Comprising both vocal performance majors and exceptional singers from diverse academic fields, the Chamber Singers have achieved national recognition, including being finalists in the 2024 American Prize Classical Music Competition for best choral performance.

Established in 1965, the choir has performed at some of the world's most prestigious venues, such as Walt Disney Concert Hall and Carnegie Hall, where they have premiered groundbreaking works and collaborated with distinguished contemporary composers.

The ensemble consists of approximately 40 students, who are pursuing a wide array of graduate and undergraduate degrees in disciplines ranging from engineering and math to music and science.
